Broad Field Social Studies
Economics

Economics Major: 36 Credits
(18 of which must be taken at 300 level or above)

Required (9 Cr):
- 103 Principles of Microeconomics. 3cr
- 104 Principles of Macroeconomics. 3cr
- 351 Introduction to International Economic Relations. 3cr

Select one of the following two courses (3 Cr):
- 210 Economic Statistics. 3cr
- 413 Statistics for Economists. 3cr (FALL)

One class from each of the following three areas (9 Cr):

A. Economic Theory
- 301 Intermediate Microeconomics. 3cr
- 302 Intermediate Macroeconomics. 3cr
- 404 Economic Applications of Game Theory. 3cr
- 506 Mathematical Economics I. 3cr
- 606 Mathematical Economics II. 3cr

B. Labor Economics
- 415 Economics of Employment Relations. 3cr
- 447 Labor Economics. 3cr (SPRING)
- 448 Economics of Human Resources. 3cr (FALL)

C. Strategy, Law, and the Economy
- 231 Analysis of American Industries. 3cr
- 333 Economics and Law. 3cr
- 335 Economics and Antitrust Laws. 3cr
- 432 Industrial Organization. 3cr

Electives (15 Cr):
- Elective
- Elective
- Elective
- Elective
- Elective

---

Economics Concentration: 12 Credits
(6 of which must be taken at the 300 level or above)

Required (6 Cr):
- 103 Principles of Microeconomics. 3cr
- 104 Principles of Macroeconomics. 3cr

Electives (6 Cr):
- Elective
- Elective

Note: Not all courses are offered every semester.